

Linguistic and national networks: the role of diasporas

Workshop Schedule

Time	Thursday 13.06	Friday 14.06	Saturday 15.06
9.00			9:00-9:50 Presentation C. Stenz : Diaspora or Global Bourgeoisie. 'Scientific' Collections and (Trans-) national Networks among Planters in Nineteenth Century Guatemala.
9.30		9:30-9:50 Introduction G. Delley
10.00		9:50-10:40 Presentation S. Reubi : Institutionalising Local Networks. The Société Neuchâteloise de Géographie and Its Commercial and Ethnographic Museum (1880-1920)	9:50-10:40 Presentation S. Hirzel : The lasting influence of diasporic life on collection history(ies): from a mummified person from Peru and a German collector
10.30		Coffee break	Coffee break
11.00		11:10-12:00 Présentation I. Podgorny : Chains of information and language networks in the Americas: the flow of objects and data through the ex-pats, consuls and travelling persons	11:00-12:00 G. Delley , guided tour in the temporary exhibition of the Laténium "Dans les camps. Archéologie de l'enfermement"
11.30
12.00
12.30		Lunch	Lunch
13.00
13.30
14.00		13:30-15:00 M.-A. Kaeser , Guided tour in the permanent exhibition of the Laténium "Hier, entre Méditerranée et Mer du nord"	13:30-15:00 Network admin session - MOOC Project
14.30
15.00	15:15-15:25 Opening & welcome: G. Delley & M.-A. Kaeser	15:10-16:00 Presentation M. Michaud : Missionary collections and provincial museums in the British Empire (1850s-1930s)	15:00-15:15 Working session - Digital exhibition
15.30	15:25-16:30 J. Litman, C. Bueno & P. de Montmollin , Flash-visit of the Museum of Natural History Neuchâtel (MNHN)
16.00		Coffee break
16.30	16:45-17:15 J. Litman and C. Bueno : Introduction to the history of the collections of the MNHN	16:30-17:45 M.-A. Kaeser , guided tour in the archaeological park of the Laténium
17.00
17.30	17:30-18:30 Keynote Alexander Brust : Extractivism, World History and Personal Relationships : Some Open Ends of Ethnographic Collections between Latin America and Switzerland
18.00
	18:30 Dinner apéritif	18:00 Dinner apéritif	